

The Martin Maq turntable MG is a machine that has great versatility due to the wide range of applications for which it is conceived.

Different types of rotary tables are suitable for intermediate stocking to absorb possible variations in production due to the action of machines or people.

It is the perfect machine for manufacturing, selections or make visual inspections because of the possibility of having a double level.

This table is easily adaptable to every production due to facility with which one can change the number of employees working on it.

Our wide range of models allows us to offer the system that best suits your needs with the tightest investment, which guarantees a rapid return on investment.

Main features

- This table is constructed entirely of stainless steel.
- Materials and mechanical components all of them of maximum quality.
- Adjustable rotation speed.
- System of water evacuation to avoid possible stagnations.
- The machine complies with all health and safety regulations.
- Easy maintenance and accessibility to all major parts of the machine.
- Optional anti-shock coating for delicate products.

Technical features

	Maximum diameter (mm)	Height (mm)	Total Power (Kw)	Number of levels	Weight (Kg)
MG15	1500	900	0.12	1	70
MCG530	3000	900	0.18	1	310
MCGD30	3000	900-1200	0.18	2	380